INVITATION

Dear Prospective Sponsors and Exhibitors,

It is my greatest pleasure and honor to cordially invite you to the XXXIst General Assembly of the International Astronomical Union (IAUGA 2022), to be convened between August 2 and 11, 2022 at BEXCO in Busan, Korea in parallel with virtual meeting platform at www.iauga2022.org.

Initially planned to be held in August 2021, IAUGA 2022 has been postponed to August 2022 due to the unrelenting COVID-19 pandemic and will be organized in a hybrid format for the first time in the IAU history. Nevertheless, I firmly believe that IAUGA 2022 will draw greater attention from the interested parties wishing to meet colleagues and friends face to face after a long confinement at home.

Astronomy is one of the oldest studies in human history because it entails practical values affecting people's lives. Astronomy has always been at the forefront of developing the nature of mankind's wellbeing, and today it is deeply rooted to the latest technology used in cross-sectional industries, awarding a better tomorrow for all.

International Astronomical Union (IAU) is the largest association of professional astronomers in the world. Its general assemblies have been a powerful avenue for astronomers, researchers, industry leaders, and young scholars to share the up-to-date research outcomes, friendship and celebrated a true festival of astronomy. Typically, GA attracts approximately 3,000 participants. Becoming a sponsor and/or exhibitor, you will have opportunities to maximize your organization's presence, meet astronomers and industry partakers from four corners of the world, and reposition your organization's brand, while supporting the advancement of the international astronomical community.

Your proactive involvement will be the key to the success of the IAUGA 2022. I very much look forward to having the opportunity to work with your organization in the near future and express my sincere gratitude for your kind support in advance.

Prof. Hyesung Kang

Chair

Logo

The upper wavy pattern and the red and white circles depict the five mountain peaks, the Sun, and the Moon, respectively, in the painting of Irworobongdo (일월오봉도) from Joseon dynasty. Here the Sun and Moon symbolize the king and queen, respectively, while the five peaks denote mythical places.

Lower bridge design represents the Gwangan bridge in Busan, which symbolizes the main theme of the Busan GA, "connecting astronomers from all around the world".

ABOUT IAU

International Astronomical Union

The International Astronomical Union (IAU) was founded in 1919. Its mission is to promote and safeguard the science of astronomy in all its aspects through international cooperation. Its individual members—structured into Divisions, Commissions, and Working Groups—are professional astronomers from all over the world, at the Ph.D. level and beyond, who are active in professional research and education in astronomy. As of June 2020, the IAU has 13,398 members.

The key activity of the IAU is the organization of scientific meetings. Among the other tasks of the IAU are the definition of fundamental astronomical and physical constants; unambiguous astronomical nomenclature; promotion of education activities in astronomy; and informal discussion on the possibilities of future international large-scale facilities. The IAU also serves as the internationally recognized authority for assigning designations to celestial bodies and surface features on them.

ABOUT IAU GENERAL ASSEMBLIES

IAU General Assembly (IAUGA) takes place every three years and comprises two five-day sessions spread over two weeks. GA offers six IAU symposia, 15 Focus Meetings, and individual business and scientific meetings of Divisions, Commissions, and Working Groups. This event is a unique opportunity for astronomers worldwide working in all fields of astronomy to come together. In addition to the core administrative meetings, the GA also includes a substantial and attractive scientific programs. IAUGAs attracts approximately 3,000 participants and invites 30+ sponsors and 50+ exhibitors each time.
